O R D E R :

In the reference 1st read above, the Director, Andhra Pradesh Govt. Text Book Press, Hyderabad has reported that the A.P.Govt., Text Book Press, Hyderabad, is a production orientated department. The department and the services of the Daily Wage Earners are quite essential and absolutely necessary for the day to day operation of the press and to sustain its productivity. Considering the facts and circumstances of the department, the Government in concurrence with the Finance Department has issued a special permission to the A.P.Government Text Book Press for appointment of Casual Labour to a maximum extent of 200 in various technical sections vide G.O.Ms.No.63 Education Department Dated 23.01.1981. He has also reported that as per Govt., Memo. No.3116/D2/67-1, Education dated 23.10.1967 and Govt., Memo.No. 15742/Exams.2/89-3, Education Department Dated 12.9.1989 as many number of 151 daily wage workers appointed during the year 1985 onwards have been absorbed as Khailasis in the Press in the permanent vacant posts.

2. He has further reported that as per G.O.Ms.No. 212, Finance Department dt. 22.4.1994 the proposals for the absorption of daily wage workers have been submitted. Meanwhile, when the issue is under examination by the Government, as many as of 35 candidates were absorbed as per the Government memos mentioned at para 1 above.

3. He has also reported that a long correspondence has been taken place between the department and the Government for absorption of left over 13 candidates, out of 157 daily workers appointed under Government orders, on the clarification sought on the G.O.Ms.No. 212 Finance Department dated 22.4.1994. The daily wage workers appointed and absorbed in their department are Governed by a special orders which is not applicable to any other department viz., Memo.No.3116/K2/67-1, Education dated 23.10.1967 and Govt. Memo. No. 15742/Exams.2/89-3, Education dated 12.9.1989.

4. He has also reported that the problem in respect of absorption of daily wage workers in the Text Book Press has come up after issue of G.O.Ms.No.212 dated 22-4-1994 and it is being applied to the daily wage workers working in Text Book Press on par with other daily wage workers in other departments. The absorption of left over 13 candidates is to be looked into on par with other (151) daily wage workers who have been absorbed as per the above mentioned memos. 3116/.K2/67-1, Education dt.23.10.1967 and Govt., Memo. No.15742/Exams.2/89-3, Education dated 12.9.1989 and the issue has been projected by the Press employees' Union leaders in so many official discourses earlier.

5. He has further reported that there are sufficient number of suitable vacancies available for the absorption of the left over 13 candidates as per the communal roster points and in case the Government takes the positive decision on the count of natural justice and equal opportunities for absorption of the remaining 13 candidates, they may fall under new pension plan rules with nominal financial commitment on the part of Government.
